Microsoft Tunnel for Mobile Application Management Privacy information

Your privacy is important to us. Review the following privacy related online documentation:

- Microsoft Privacy Statement,
- Privacy and personal data in Intune,
- Data storage and processing in Intune,

When integrating the Microsoft Tunnel for MAM iOS SDK into mobile apps, the following data is collected when a developer:

- Enables the Intune MAM telemetry module in the app

The data collected may include the following areas:

- Microsoft Tunnel for MAM SDK version
- Microsoft-generated user information
    - Device ID
- Hardware and software information
    - Device make
    - Device model
    - Device OS version
- Admin and account information
    - Intune Tenant ID
    - AAD tenant ID
- Usage measurement:
    - VPN initialization
    - VPN connect and disconnect events.
- Error information
    - Errors related to VPN connection failure.

No user identifiable information is collected*

*DISCLAIMER: advisement to developers integrating the SDK, do not include any user identifiable data when using code to address and capture messages in an application.